THE BOOK MARK

Kingston Public Library
March 2017 Newsletter

A note from the director...

We have new magazines coming in this month!

In Food and home, we have Southern Living, Taste of the South, and Tennessee Gardener. Our subscriptions to Rachel Ray and Country Gardens are ending.

In Outdoors, we are adding Boating World, which replaces Travel + Leisure.

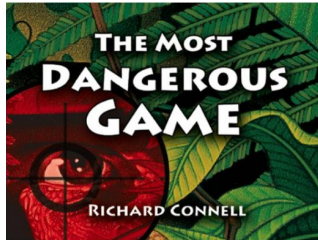

In Women's interests, we have O: the Oprah Magazine and Southern Lady. These will replace Health and Vogue.

In General interests, Family Fun and Reader's Digest large print are new. We still have original Reader's Digest.

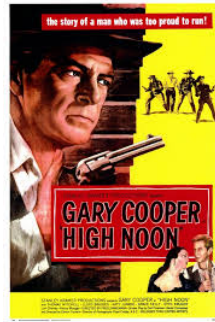

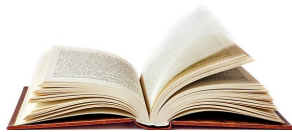

In DIY/crafts, we are adding Threads, a sewing magazine.

We keep Consumer Reports at the front desk; just ask for a copy. We have several back copies, so if there is a specific subject that you are looking for, let us know and we'll see what we have.

Kristy McNay, both employed by TVA, will be speaking to our teens to about their careers in science. Join us!

March 14, 11:00 am to 1:00 pm
Drop-in and listen as we read aloud The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell, a short story about the perils that await a big game hunter, who washes up on the shore of a remote island. The story becomes interesting when he meets General Zaroff, a fellow hunter. Find out how the story plays out when the hunter becomes the hunted.
